La Leche League Leaders in southern Nevada are accredited volunteer mothers who have breastfed their own children, offering a supportive community and FREE practical, experience-based information and support for parents wanting to feed their babies human milk.

■ Group Meetings: There are FOUR monthly Group Meetings in southern Nevada where pregnant and breastfeeding parents can share experiences, ask questions, and learn from Leaders and other parents.

■ Phone Helping: In between meetings, La Leche League Leaders provide help via phone, text, and email.

On occasion we like to be invited to speak to groups, rounds, and in-service; promoting the idea that human milk is vital for a baby's healthy development.

La Leche League in southern Nevada is backed by a global, non-profit, non-sectarian organization providing us with online resources that are both practical and science based, many ongoing opportunities for continuing education, as well as publishing many books, pamphlets, and other media in many languages and over 80 countries.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a mother may breast feed her child in any public or private location where the mother is otherwise authorized to be, irrespective of whether the nipple of the mother's breast is uncovered during or incidental to the breast feeding.
